Live-In Housekeeper/Cook

Our client, Mrs. S. Parker, requires the services of a trustworthy and experienced Live-In Housekeeper/Cook to be responsible for the management of a large, meticulous home, to include the usual household duties, meal preparation, serving and assisting at dinner parties. Household duties include laundry, ironing and all aspects of thorough cleaning and polishing, window cleaning and silver. The role also requires occasional errands including grocery shopping and pet-care of a dog and African Grey parrot. The successful applicant should have proven experience in managing all aspects of a household, especially as the occupants travel from time to time and often have houseguests including visiting children and grandchildren. The applicant should have a valid driver's license, or have the ability to obtain one, and be comfortable living and working within an active home with a dog and periodic entertaining. Also must be able to work on own initiative, and have previous experience in a similar position of at least two years is essential. The work schedule will be flexible requiring a willingness to work on any weekdays, evenings and weekends as and when required. The individual must be a non-smoker. As this is a position of trust, a police background check is required upon application.
