Dear Ms. Strangeways,

Re: Public Access to Information Act 2010 – Notice of Refusal of Request on Administrative Grounds

Thank you for your request dated 4 July 2022, received on 5 July 2022. Further to our Notice of Extension letter dated 15 August 2022, the authority is pleased to provide you with its decision regarding your request for “All public decisions of the Employment Tribunal since 1 June 2021.”

The authority can confirm that the records you requested are in the public domain and are reasonably accessible or available to the public at no charge as per Section 16(1)(f) of the Public Access to Information Act 2010 (the “Act”) as follows.

- Publication of the records are required by law in accordance with Section 44F of the Employment Act 2000.
- As future records will be readily available to the public, a PATI request is not necessary to obtain them.
- Some records may be published at later periods, but not exceeding one year after the matter has been heard by the Tribunal, in accordance with Section 44F(3)(b).

In light of the above, your request is administratively denied in accordance with Section 16(1)(f) of the Act. Please use the following link to access the records you requested:

https://www.gov.bm/employment-and-labour-relations-tribunal

Under Section 41 of the Act, you have the right to apply in writing to the head of the public authority for an internal review of any decision made by the authority with respect to a request or any failure to take action required under the Act including a decision to grant or refuse access to a record.

Do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries about this letter. Please ensure that you quote the reference number above in any future correspondence.
Yours sincerely,

Marcelle Lawrence
