IGI Group President & CEO Waleed Jabsheh said, “We had another quarter of strong profitability with solid underwriting results and investment income. For the third quarter of 2025, we delivered a combined ratio of 76.5%, underwriting income of $51.4 million, and net income of $33.5 million. This resulted in an annualized return on average equity of 19.9% and an annualized core operating return on average equity of 22.9%. These results illustrate the strong cycle management culture we have at IGI.”

“Current market conditions remain generally favorable across our markets but are showing significant variation by line of business and geographical territory. Our strategy, technical expertise and disciplined execution are specifically aimed at managing the inherent cyclicity and volatility of our business.”

“For the first nine months of 2025, we grew our book value per share by 9.3%, and in total during this period, we returned $98 million to shareholders in the form of dividends and share repurchases. At IGI, we have consistently demonstrated our ability to perform at a high level, generating long-term value for our shareholders, and this is reflected in our recent financial strength ratings upgrade to “A” with a stable outlook by S&P Global Ratings. We have built a strong foundation and a level of resilience in our business that we believe will continue to drive value through all stages of the cycle.”

Results for the Periods ended September 30, 2025 and 2024

The Company generated net income for the quarter ended September 30, 2025 of $33.5 million compared to $34.5 million for the third quarter of 2024. Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 was $94.9 million compared to $105.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024. The annualized return on average equity was 19.9% and 22.3% for the quarters ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, the Company generated an annualized return on average equity of 18.9% and 23.5%, respectively.

Core operating income, a non-GAAP financial measure, was $38.6 million for the third quarter of 2025, compared to $30.7 million for the same period in 2024. The Company generated a core operating return on average equity (annualized) of 22.9% and 19.8% for the third quarters of 2025 and 2024, respectively. Core operating income was $80.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, compared to $103.9 million for the same period in 2024. The annualized core operating return on average equity was 16.1% for the first nine months of 2025, compared to 23.2% for the first nine months of 2024. Core operating income for the first nine months of 2025 included a lower level of underwriting income, largely driven by the decline in net premiums earned and the negative impact of currency revaluation movements of the U.S Dollar against our major transactional currencies.

Gross written premiums were $131.3 million in the quarter ended September 30, 2025, compared to $138.3 million for the comparable period in 2024. For the first nine months of 2025, gross written premiums were $525.6 million, a marginal increase when compared to gross written premiums of $525.5 million for the first nine months of 2024.

Underwriting income was $51.4 million for the third quarter of 2025 compared to $41.4 million for the third quarter of 2024, and $114.3 million for the first nine months of 2025 compared to $138.7 million for the first nine months of 2024. Underwriting income for the third quarter and first nine months of 2025 was impacted by the decline in net premiums earned and currency revaluation movements, as described above.

The loss ratio was 39.3% and 51.5% for the quarters ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, the loss ratio was 49.3% and 45.3%, respectively. The improvement in loss ratio for the third quarter was impacted by a lower level of large loss activity as well as the currency devaluation of non-U.S. dollar loss reserves, driven by the strengthening of the U.S. Dollar against our major transactional currencies. The increase in the loss ratio for the first nine months of 2025 was impacted by catastrophe losses ("CAT losses") of $45.8 million, as well as the impact of currency revaluation movements of non-U.S. dollar loss reserves, notably the U.S Dollar against our major transactional currencies.

The net policy acquisition expense ratio was 15.9% in the third quarter of 2025 compared to 15.6% in the same quarter of 2024. The net policy acquisition expense ratio for the first nine months of 2025 was 17.3%, compared to 16.4% for the same period of 2024, with the increase primarily due to $11.1 million of reinstatement premiums on loss affected business in the first nine months of 2025.

The general & administrative expense ratio was 21.3% for the third quarter of 2025, compared to 18.9% for the same quarter of 2024, and 20.5% for the first nine months of 2025, compared to 18.8% for the first nine months of 2024. The higher expense ratios are primarily the result of lower net earned premiums for both the third quarter and first nine months of 2025.

The resulting combined ratio was 76.5% for the third quarter of 2025, compared to 86.0% for the third quarter of 2024, and 87.1% for the first nine months of 2025, compared to 80.5% for the first nine months of 2024. The combined ratios for both the third quarter and first nine months of 2025 were impacted by currency revaluation movements, as described above.

Underwriting income was $29.6 million for the third quarter of 2025 compared to $34.7 million for the same quarter of 2024, with the decrease largely driven by a lower level of net premiums earned for the third quarter of 2025 compared to the same period in 2024.

Gross written premiums were $297.8 million for the first nine months of 2025 compared to $306.1 million for the first nine months of 2024. Underwriting income was $80.2 million for the first nine months of 2025 compared to $91.2 million for the first nine months of 2024, with the decrease largely driven by a lower level of net premiums earned, partially offset by a lower level of net loss and loss adjustment expenses for the first nine months of 2025 compared to the same period in 2024.

The Specialty Long-tail Segment, which represented 25% of the Company's gross written premiums for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, recorded gross written premiums of $43.8 million for the third quarter of 2025, compared to $50.1 million for the third quarter of 2024. This segment recorded underwriting income of $11.4 million in the third quarter of 2025, compared to a loss of $1.0 million in the third quarter of 2024, largely due to the lower level of large loss activity, and consequently, a lower level of net loss and loss adjustment expenses in the third quarter of 2025. In the third quarter of 2025, underwriting income for this segment, which is transacted primarily in Pound Sterling, was positively impacted by currency devaluation movements on net loss reserves amounting to $3.8 million.

Gross written premiums were $130.2 million for the first nine months of 2025, compared to $140.8 million for the first nine months of 2024. Net premiums earned for the first nine months of 2025 were $93.8 million compared to $110.5 million for the same period of 2024. This segment recorded underwriting income of $1.0 million in the first nine months of 2025, compared to $25.2 million in the first nine months of 2024, largely due to a higher level of net loss and loss adjustment expenses and a lower level of net premiums earned for the first nine months of 2025, compared to the same period in 2024. Underwriting income for the first nine months of 2025 was negatively impacted by currency revaluation movements on net loss reserves amounting to $17.4 million.

The Reinsurance Segment, which represented 18% of the Company's gross written premiums for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, recorded gross written premiums of $11.3 million for the third quarter of 2025, compared to $13.5 million for the third quarter of 2024. Net premiums earned for the quarter ended September 30, 2025 were $21.9 million, a marginal increase from the $21.8 million for the same quarter in 2024. Underwriting income increased by 35.1% to $10.4 million for the third quarter of 2025, compared to $7.7 million for the third quarter of 2024, primarily resulting from the lower level of loss and loss adjustment expenses.

Gross written premiums were $97.6 million for the first nine months of 2025, reflecting an increase of 24.2% compared to $78.6 million for the first nine months of 2024. Net premiums earned for the first nine months of 2025 were $70.8 million, an increase of $12.4 million or 21.2%, compared to $58.4 million for the same period in 2024. Underwriting income increased by 48.4% to $33.1 million for the first nine months of 2025, compared to $22.3 million for the first nine months of 2024, primarily resulting from the higher level of net premiums earned on a larger reinsurance portfolio.

Core Operating Income

Core operating income measures the performance of our operations without the influence of after-tax gains or losses on investments and foreign currencies and other items as noted in the table below. We exclude these items from our calculation of core operating income because the amounts of these gains and losses are heavily influenced by, and fluctuate in part according to, economic and other factors external to the Company and/or transactions or events that are typically not a recurring part of, and are largely independent of, our core underwriting activities and including them distorts the analysis of trends in our operations. We believe the reporting of core operating income enhances an understanding of our results by highlighting the underlying profitability of our core insurance operations. Our underwriting profitability is impacted by earned premiums, the adequacy of pricing, and the frequency and severity of losses. Over time, such profitability is also influenced by underwriting discipline, which seeks to manage the Company's exposure to loss through intelligent risk selection and diversification, IGI's management of claims, use of reinsurance and the ability to manage the expense ratio, which the Company accomplishes through the management of acquisition costs and other underwriting expenses.

In addition to presenting net income for the period determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP, we believe that showing "core operating income" provides investors with a valuable measure of profitability and enables investors, rating agencies and other users of our financial information to analyze the Company's results in a similar manner to the way in which Management analyzes the Company's underlying business performance.

International General Insurance Holdings Ltd.
Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Core operating income is calculated by the addition or subtraction of certain line items reported in the “Consolidated Statements of Income” from net income for the period and tax effecting each line item (resulting in each item being a non-GAAP financial measure), as illustrated in the table below:

	Quarter Ended		Nine Months Ended
