

ASW LAW CONTINUES TO BE RECOGNISED IN CHAMBERS & PARTNERS GLOBAL 2022

Chambers & Partners*, the international legal directory, has released its Global 2022 rankings and features a number of ASW Law's lawyers. ASW Law was again recognised in Bermuda as one of the leading law firms across multiple practice areas with 4 of its lawyers being recognised as industry specialists.

ASW Law was recognised in the following practice areas:

- Corporate & Finance – Band 2
- Insurance – Band 2
- Dispute Resolution – Band 3

The following ASW Law lawyers were recognised under the Global 2022 rankings:

Neil Horner

Category: Corporate & Finance – Band 1

Insurance – Band 1

Neil is the head of the corporate practice and offers a wealth of experience representing insurance companies in transactional and regulatory mandates. He is especially noteworthy for his insights into the Bermudian elements of cross-border M&A matters in the insurance sector.

Kehinde George

Category: Dispute Resolution – Band 3

Kehinde is the head of the insolvency group with an active practice advising clients on corporate restructurings, liquidations and insolvency mandates.

Rod S Attride-Stirling

Category: Dispute Resolution – Band 3

Rod, chairman of the firm and head of litigation, is a highly respected Bermuda lawyer who frequently assists clients with contentious trust and insurance mandates. His broader practice also touches upon insolvency matters and shareholder disputes.

Hanno Tolhurst

Category: Insurance – Up and Coming

Hanno has been recognised for his rising profile in non-contentious insurance work in Bermuda. He is well versed in M&A and also regularly assists with debt capital markets issuances.

Neil Horner said: "We are very proud of the teams and their achievements in the numerous practice areas. Most importantly of all, we are thankful to our clients for their continued trust in our firm and their great references. They are a testament to our core mission of developing bespoke solutions as cost-effectively as possible. We look forward to continuing engagement with our clients, both existing and new, throughout the coming year"

ASW Law is a leading, specialist corporate and commercial law firm based in Bermuda. The firm's barristers and attorneys have extensive legal experience in both Bermuda and a number of foreign jurisdictions.

* Chambers & Partners is a widely respected international legal directory that carries out annual comprehensive research to rank the best law firms and lawyers in various practice areas across more than 200 jurisdictions. The research is conducted by a team of researchers collecting various materials from clients and it provides reliable recommendations to allow current and prospective clients make informed decisions when seeking specific jurisdictional legal services.