

GL CONSTRUCTION

requires

CONCRETE FORM CARPENTERS

Candidates must have at least 5 years experience with various concrete form systems on large residential and commercial projects. The knowledge in fabrication and installation of concrete forming systems for walls and suspended slabs using fly form, Peri and conventional systems is also required. Applicants must have proven ability to read drawings, project specifications and the ability to layout one's own work accurately with minimal supervision. Ability to work in a physically challenging setting as well as the ability to work independently and adhere to deadlines are essential for this position. A recognized carpentry certificate and or qualifications must be presented with resume, along with 3 work references. Apply to:

Dennis Rodrigues
Form Carpenters
GL Construction
P.O. Box HM 3288
Hamilton HM PX
