

ROOM ATTENDANT

The Bermuda Institute of Ocean Sciences (BIOS), Inc. is a US incorporated 'not-for-profit' research and educational institution and a Bermuda-registered charity. BIOS is seeking to employ a Room Attendant to assist with the cleaning of its different-types of accommodation, including guest rooms, apartments, cottages and common areas located within the housing and laboratory facilities as well as public areas.

This position is 30 hours per week, 7.30am–1.30pm Monday to Friday with occasional weekends/public holidays as needed. Lay off periods may occur when occupancy is low.

The successful applicant will have experience in all aspects of general cleaning and have an excellent work ethic. He/she will be mature, honest, a good time-keeper, dependable, physically fit, and work to the highest standards. A proven record of working in a similar position is an asset.

If you possess a dedication to service and qualify as a candidate, please submit a cover letter and resume with references to the address below or collect an application form from our Reception Desk. Applications from Bermudians and/or Spouses of Bermudians are preferred.
