

Construction Project Manager

Hasco Construction is looking for an experienced working Construction Project Manager. Responsibilities include managing multiple construction projects, multiple foremen's, and developing job schedules, while bringing them in on schedule and working along side of staff. Prefer qualifications include 10 years of experience in the field and knowledge as well as the ability to perform the following tasks in construction masonry, plumbing, electrical and reading plans. Applicant should have good communication and organizational skills, a proven track record and preferred to speak Portuguese.

Please send resume with and at least 3 letters of reference by May 18th, 2012 to Hasco Construction, P.O. Box SN 698, Southampton SN BX, fax 238-8331 or email to lhassell@northrock.bm.