Conyers Corporate Department renders advice to commercial clients around the world on a variety of corporate and commercial transactions. Groups within the Corporate Department specialize in advising in various areas (some of which are subject to specific regulation) including banking and financing, capital markets, securities, shipping and aircraft registration and financing, insurance, e-commerce, telecommunications, mergers and acquisitions, securities, mutual and investment funds and investment funds and investment business. We are seeking a qualified attorney who can demonstrate at least seven (7) years successful and relevant experience in some or all of the areas of practice.

Conyers values its attorneys and provides a collegial and team oriented approach to work. Attorneys are expected to advise and assist clients directly and without supervision on matters and render inter-office assistance, as necessary. Conyers has made significant investment in technology, systems and support staff to bring the best resources available to support the attorneys.

Conditions of employment will fully reflect the responsibilities of the position.
