

requires the services of a
Senior Print Account Manager

We are currently seeking an individual who possesses a thorough working knowledge of offset & digital print. The successful candidate must have a full rounded background with complete technical knowledge in all aspects of conventional offset and digital technology, a well as bindery and finishing techniques.

The candidate will be working closely with current and existing customers while seeking new opportunities and clients requiring design, development and preparation of print and print related products that range from single to full colour printing and any other requirements as needed or requested by the client.

They must possess excellent negotiating skills with a pleasant and courteous manner, exhibit a professional image in the merchant and business community. The candidate must also be computer literate with experience in Microsoft office and graphic arts packages. Willing to provide a high level of customer service including working out of normal office hours when required. A self-motivated, dynamic, goal driven individual, who will be able to maintain sales targets while seeking out new business.

A competitive compensation with commission plus health and pension benefits are offered in a pleasant but busy environment.

Please forward your resume marked confidential to:

Human Resources
P.O. Box HM 1025, Hamilton HM DX
Or
Email: hr@bphl.bm
Closing Date: May 31, 2012

