

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

PRICE FORBES & PARTNERS (BERMUDA) LIMITED

Price Forbes & Partners (Bermuda) Limited (the Company) is the Bermudian arm of Price Forbes & Partners Limited, an independent Lloyd's insurance and reinsurance broker based in the City of London.

Bermuda is an important market for the Price Forbes Group and the Company enables us to have direct access to underwriters. It also provides a base from which key staff can travel to meet clients in the USA. The current focus is on growing our casualty business which is a key speciality of the Group.

The Company is seeking to appoint an Assistant Director to work in its offices in Front Street, Hamilton. The successful applicant will support the Chief Executive Officer in all of his activities in growing the casualty business through establishing and developing effective relationships with new and existing clients and markets. Applicants will have spent at least 5 years working with an established casualty team or teams and will be experienced at both broking to the market and in dealing with clients to plan, negotiate and construct insurance solutions tailored to their specific needs. The role will also involve managing the interface between the Bermuda and London Companies to ensure that servicing activities specified in the outsourcing agreement between them are carried out to standard.

The successful candidate will have knowledge of the Law of Agency and Law of Contract appropriate to the role and will have a working knowledge of both the regulatory requirements of the Bermudian Monetary Authority and the UK's Financial Services Authority.

If you are interested in applying for the role, please submit your CV together with a covering letter by 17 August 2012 to Chris Newton at chrisnewton@priceforbes.com.
