TEACHING VACANCY FOR January 2013

The Bermuda High School for Girls, an IB World School, caters to students from Year 1 through to Year 13. The School offers the UK National Curriculum through Key Stage 1-4, the (I)GCSE Examinations in Year 11 and the IB Diploma and Certificates in the final two years of school. All applicants should hold strong academic qualifications: a good honours degree in Mathematics and teacher training certification. Proven success, formal training and a minimum of 3 years' experience in teaching the subject would be a requirement. A willingness to contribute to the school's extensive extracurricular programme is essential. Prospective teachers should be comfortable with the use of technology in the classroom. All applicants must meet the requirements of the Bermuda Teacher's License.

Part-time Teacher of Mathematics

This part-time position requires the teaching of Mathematics at the Middle and Secondary levels: including the preparation of students for the (I)GCSE and IB examinations. Candidates must be suitably qualified and have a successful record of teaching at these levels.

Candidates for the above positions should submit a completed resumé including three professional references (one should be your current employer) to:

Mrs Linda Parker, B.A., B.Ed., M.Ed.
