

Sedgwick Chudleigh

BARRISTERS AND ATTORNEYS

Litigation Counsel

Sedgwick Chudleigh is seeking a lawyer to join its specialized commercial litigation and arbitration practice. The candidate will be admitted to practice in England and Wales as a barrister and will demonstrate at least five years experience of complex and high value commercial litigation, including corporate, general chancery, trusts, funds, insolvency, professional negligence and insurance/reinsurance matters. The position will involve the management of large litigation matters in the Supreme Court of Bermuda as well as international arbitrations. Experience handling arbitrations involving the Bermuda occurrence-reported policy form is essential. Candidates will have extensive advocacy experience before commercial courts and tribunals.
