

Conyers Dill & Pearman

Attorney, Intellectual Property Department

We require an attorney with proven experience to provide expertise in the area of Trademarks and all other aspects of Intellectual Property.

Applicants must have a minimum of five years relevant post qualifications experience. A formal qualification in the discipline would be an advantage.

Key Job Requirements

The position may involve providing guidance for other lawyers assigned to the department and will involve supervision.

Conyers values its attorneys and provides a collegial and team oriented approach to work. Attorneys are expected to advise and assist clients directly and without supervision on matters and render inter-office assistance, as necessary. Conyers has made significant investment in technology, systems and support staff to bring the best resources available to support the attorneys.

Conditions of employment will fully reflect the responsibilities of the position.

This is currently a part time position.
