

Happy 90th Birthday

Thank You

Thank you are two words which seem to be very inadequate for my appreciation to all those who attended my 90th Birthday Celebration on 27th October, 2012.

I would first like to give honour and praise to God, for without his blessings on my life over the years the celebration would not have been possible. Secondly, to my family; daughters Connie & Margaret and their husbands Neil & Patrick; grandchildren, Beverley, Alfred, Tanya, Andre, Debbie, Omari, Quinita, Quinell, Quinton, Michelle & Latia; great grandchildren & great great grandson.

I was delighted to share this occasion with my extented family & numerous friends and am very grateful for all the gifts received.

May God continue to Bless you all
Dorothy Esdaille
