

PROJECT SUPERINTENDENT

Responsibilities will include the day-to-day management of site operations on construction projects, including management of field operatives, supervision of trades, monitoring of subcontractors, allocation of work, ensuring performance of building procedure. Successful applicants will be self-motivated with good time keeping, have excellent motivational skills and have a flexible approach to work. He/she will be able to demonstrate at least five years in a similar position. Any formal training or qualifications will be viewed positively. Ability to use computerised spreadsheets and word processing packages would be an advantage, as well as have a clean criminal record and be willing to partake random drug testing.

Please apply for the above position in writing (include an up-to-date resume) to Suite 652, 48 Par-la-ville Road, Hamilton HM11.

Applications may be faxed to 441-232-1195