

THE BERMUDA NATIONAL TRUST

To protect and promote Bermuda's unique natural and cultural heritage forever.

EDUCATION OFFICER

The Bermuda National Trust is seeking a vibrant experienced teacher to facilitate educational programmes throughout the year, focused on environment, history, culture and local traditions.

The Education Officer's responsibilities include:

- All aspects of the Trust's educational programmes as they pertain to historic properties and nature reserves;
- All aspects of the Trust's holiday camps;
- Liaison with the Ministry of Education, Education Officers, Principals and teachers to ensure Trust resources and programmes meet curriculum needs;
- Providing training opportunities for educators, volunteers, staff and others in support of the Trust's educational and interpretive programmes;
- Developing and facilitating teacher resource materials and workshops;
- Promoting and encouraging awareness and appreciation of educational/interpretive programmes to the general public;
- Assisting with other Trust events and projects as required.

The successful candidate will be a self-motivated, highly organised, team-oriented professional. He or she must have proven leadership qualities and enjoy working with people, especially youth.

A degree level qualification in education and 5 years post-qualification teaching experience are preferred with familiarity with local educational institutions and a proven knowledge of Bermuda's history, environment, culture and traditions required. Computer and administration skills using Microsoft Office products are necessary.
