

Investment Analyst

A contrarian, value-based investment management business seeks to employ an investment analyst in Bermuda.

The main responsibility of the individual would be the analysis of global equities.

The prospective candidate will possess exceptional numerical or engineering skills and a minimum of an undergraduate degree in a numerical subject from a reputable university. Preference will be given to PhD or Masters level candidates. Evidenced experience with machine learning and extensive programming skills are required.

A demonstrable interest in financial markets is highly desirable.
