

Saltus Grammar School*Secondary Department (Year 7 – Saltus Graduate Year 2)

invites applications for the following post to commence August 30, 2013.

Saltus Grammar School is a high achieving, co-educational day school educating students between the ages of 4 and 18. The school is a leading independent school in Bermuda and enjoys an excellent reputation in the local and international community. The school has a Primary Department, which embraces the Foundation Year, the Lower Primary and the Upper Primary years, and the Secondary Department which includes the Saltus Graduate Years. The school's international curriculum blends the best of both UK and North American traditions. Particular emphasis is placed on the all-round development of students, and sport, music and drama are key aspects of school life.

Teacher of English and Media Studies

The successful candidate will teach English to:

- Key Stage 3 and must be familiar with national curriculum level assessment.
- Key Stage 4 and the IGCSE Curriculum for both Language and Literature. The successful candidate should ideally have experience with IGCSE Cambridge English Language and IGCSE EDEXCEL English Literature.
- Key Stage 5 and ideally the A/AS level curriculum including Cambridge AS English Language and Literature.

In addition, the successful candidate will teach AQA Media Studies to Key Stage 5. An ability to teach Drama to Key Stage 3 would be an advantage.

Candidates for the above post:

- Must be a qualified graduate, experienced teacher and have proven success in the delivery of their subject in a differentiated classroom at all levels of the Secondary Department.
- Will be required to deliver their subject to the (I)GCSE (United Kingdom) and the Advanced Placement (North American) examination levels.
- Must have a proven ability in the use of information technology in the delivery of the curriculum. All staff are supplied with a laptop, and classrooms and teaching laboratories are equipped with interactive whiteboards, wireless Internet and wireless printing facilities.
- Must be able to use an online grading system and be willing to create and update schemes of work and resources.
- Must be licensed by or qualified to be licensed by the Bermuda Educators Council.
- Must have a commitment to the principles of independent education and be willing to contribute to extracurricular activities and the broader life of the School.

All applicants must provide the following information: title of the post applied for, full name, date of birth, national status, full details of secondary and higher education with dates, full qualifications with dates, full details of teaching and other experience (indicating schools, responsibilities and dates), and also the names, addresses and telephone numbers of two persons who are willing to provide confidential professional references, one of whom should be your current employer.
