

Requires a
TRUST & ESTATES ATTORNEY

Trott & Duncan Limited is looking for a qualified, energetic and motivated lawyer to fill the above position. This role provides the opportunity to build your own practice within the umbrella of this expanding, highly regarded and friendly firm. This will require not only a skilled and talented lawyer but also an individual able to hit the ground running and develop business quickly. The successful candidate will also be a team player with a solution focused attitude and a commitment to providing excellent client service. Strong academics and experience (preferably in a leading UK or offshore law firm) are necessary for this role. Excellent written, verbal and technical skills are essential.

Applicants must possess the following qualifications:-

- A recognized Commonwealth qualification and admission to practice law;
- At least five (5) years' post qualification experience;
- Proven record of productivity and ability to meet targets;
- Be well organized and have excellent communication skills, both verbal and written;
- Able to deal and communicate effectively with clients and colleagues;
- Strong Microsoft Office skills;
- Previous supervisory/management skills required.
