

Actuarial Consultant

The Horseshoe Group is the foremost independent insurance manager dedicated to the Reinsurance and Insurance-Linked Securities market and offers a broad array of management and advisory services.

Our insurance advisory division is looking for a highly motivated consulting actuary.

Required qualifications and skills:

- At least 7 years experience in worldwide P&C reinsurance
- Experience with worldwide reinsurance portfolios
- A university degree in analytical field such as Actuarial Sciences, Math or Statistics
- Actuarial qualification: ACAS, FCAS, FIA or equivalent
- Experience in pricing and reserving for all major lines of business
- Knowledge of enterprise risk management concepts and implementation
- Merger & Acquisition experience is a definite advantage
- Knowledge of catastrophe modeling and capital modeling is a plus
- Solid analytical and problem solving skills
- Ability to determine and implement optimal and efficient solutions
- Enthusiastic and strongly motivated self-starter
- Excellent management & communication skills
- Strong organizational skills and ability to meet deadlines
- Flexibility to travel worldwide as required

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Managing actuarial client engagements
- Participate in marketing activities
- Assist clients in financial evaluations such as capital modeling analysis
- Support clients internal audit function on a worldwide basis
- Assist clients' senior management generate various strategic alternatives
- Support clients due diligence on worldwide reinsurance portfolio
- Conduct various research projects in insurance and reinsurance topics

This is an excellent career opportunity with a fast-paced growing company.

Applications will be dealt with in strict confidence and interested candidates can apply before July 12th, 2013 in writing or via email to:

Horseshoe Group
Emporium Building | 69 Front Street | Hamilton HM12 careers@horseshoe.bm

NO AGENCIES PLEASE