BERMUDA MONETARY AUTHORITY

Senior Officer

Policy, Legal and Enforcement Department

The Bermuda Monetary Authority is seeking the services of a skilled and capable individual to work as Senior Officer within the Policy, Legal and Enforcement Department. Reporting to the Assistant Director, the Senior Officer will be responsible for providing a range of technical policy support activities including researching complex regulatory issues, developing and recommending possible solutions, providing advice and guidance on policy matters, and evaluating the effectiveness of current and proposed policy.

In this key role, the incumbent will be responsible for:

- Providing effective and timely advice to management regarding regulatory policy issues and the Authority's regulatory policy;
- Assisting in the preparation of Discussion, Consultation and other policy papers, along with Rules, Statement of Principles, Guidance Notes and other policy documents reflecting the Authority's regulatory policy initiatives;
- Performing policy and research projects relevant to regulatory policy initiatives;
- Developing and applying specialised knowledge in the area of financial services regulation, both domestic and international (e.g. Basel III, Solvency II);
- Working closely with line and support areas of the Authority in providing interpretations and advice on regulatory provisions, and in formulating appropriate supervisory responses in particular cases;
- Performing other related work and special projects as assigned in accordance with competencies normally associated with the position.

This position requires a proven technical and business background and therefore the post holder must possess:

- A Master's degree in a relevant related discipline (e.g. Policy, Public Policy, Economics, or Law) from a recognised university. In addition, a professional designation(s) in a related field is preferred;
- A minimum of seven (7) years of relevant experience within the financial services industry and/or with a financial regulatory body, of which at least three (3) years must be at a supervisory or policy setting level in insurance or banking. Experience in policy development is highly preferable;
- Strong writing and regulatory drafting skills are essential;
- Exceptional written and oral communication skills, and a strong attention to detail and accuracy;
- Good knowledge of relevant international regulatory standards.
