Lecture Series

November 2013

Film Night

Law and Order (30 min., English) and
The Bermuda Railway (30 min., English)

MODERATOR: Andrew Bermingham

ON Thursday 14 November, 6 p.m.

AT The Bermuda National Library, Queen Street

From Brendan Hollis' "About Bermuda" series: Law and Order explores the policing of the Island, from the duties of a 17th century parish constable to the sophisticated police service of the 1990s.

From Brendan Hollis' "About Bermuda" series: The Bermuda Railway tells the story of perhaps the most expensive railway, per mile, ever built. The last spike was driven in on 31 October 1931. Just 17 years later that same spike was ceremoniously removed as the Bermuda Railway was dismantled.

This event is FREE to the public.
