

Established in 1921, Black & McDonald is a family-owned multi-trade contractor providing electrical, mechanical, utility and maintenance services to government, industrial, commercial and institutional markets.

Currently, there is an exciting opportunity available in our Bermuda office for a Sewage Treatment Plant Building Operator.

Main Duties

- Repair and maintenance of general STP building structure
- Maintenance and repairs to heating, ventilation systems, air conditioning and refrigeration systems and equipment located at the STP
- Maintenance and repair of plumbing fixtures and components, piping of various size and type; checks safety equipment and replaces components such as washers, gaskets and filters
- Inspection, repair or replacement of pumps, valves and related systems
- Conducts general building inspections on a scheduled basis and completes reports indicating any deficiencies including but not limited to lighting, plumbing, mechanical and safety
- Responds to or assists with general service requests as instructed by an immediate supervisor
- Responds to emergency calls for repairs and service
- Perform water treatment and testing duties for STP effluent, Acute Care Wing open and closed loop systems and potable water

Employment Requirements

- Graduation from high school or General Education Diploma
- 3 years' experience in a comparable STP facility
- 5 years' experience with water treatment systems
- Maintain co-operative working relationships
- A general knowledge of building and/or facilities maintenance
- A specific trade certificate in plumbing would be considered an asset
- Ability to complete safety trainings including but not limited to, lock out/ tag out, fall arrest, confined space, WHMIS and CPR/first aid
- Must be able to perform physical activities, such as, but not limited to, moving equipment unassisted, bending, standing, climbing or walking while following established safe work practices
- Must be able to safely use hand and power tools common in the maintenance trades
- Must be a quick learner and maintain a positive attitude
- Must be available for 24/7 shift rotations and be available for off-shift assignments at the facility as required from time to time
- Abide by and adhere to Black & McDonald safe work practices
- Maintain co-operative working relationships

Please forward a resume and cover letter to Melissa Nurse at mnurse@blackandmcdonald.com by February 28, 2014.