

We're hiring Advisory Senior.

Deloitte Bermuda is currently seeking highly motivated individuals to join our Advisory practice in the role of an Advisory Senior. You will have the opportunity to provide accounting, consulting and other advisory services to public and private clients in our various industry sectors including financial services.

The standard responsibilities of an Advisory Senior can include but are not limited to:

- Development of audit plan and testing programs
- Development of risk assessments
- Testing and evaluation of records
- Contribute to engagement planning, ensuring that products/deliverables meet contract/work plan
- Ability to assess policies and procedures for compliance with regulation frameworks such as Anti-Money Laundering (AML), etc.
- Contribution to a strong client relationship through interactions with client personnel
- Ensuring quality in delivering of client service
- Follow Deloitte policies and relevant professional standards in performance of procedures
- Execution of multiple concurrent engagements, while delivering exceptional client service according to firm standards
- Report directly to managers and principals the status of engagements

The standard requirements of an Advisory Senior would include several of the following:

- Prior advisory or audit senior experience (2-5 years) in the Financial Services Industry preferred
- Completion of a CPA or other equivalent accounting designation
- Specialized qualifications such as the CIA, FRM, PMP & Fraud Designation
- Strong knowledge with either IFRS, SEC, US GAAP, Solvency II, Project Management, Risk Management, FATCA area
- High degree of competence with Microsoft Office
- Excellent communication and presentation skills

Applications should be sent in writing, marked
"Private & Confidential", by May 30, 2014 to:

Talent
Deloitte Ltd.
P.O. Box HM 1556
Hamilton HM FX
Ref: Advisory Senior

or by email to recruitment@deloitte.bm
Telephone: (441) 292-1500

Deloitte.

