Vice President and Controller, Investment Accounting

Arch Investment Management Ltd. (AIML), based in Bermuda, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Arch Capital Group Ltd., a leading insurance and reinsurance company. Arch Capital has more than $5.7bn of capital and investable assets of more than $13bn. Arch Investment Management Ltd. is responsible for managing the portfolios of Arch Capital and its subsidiaries. The continued growth of the company has created the need to fill the following new position:

The Role

Working as an integral part of the investment team the VP and Controller, Investment Accounting will manage the accounting process and act as the primary coordinator for Arch's investment portfolio by liaising with their outsourced investment accounting provider, and with Arch Investment Management Group and subsidiary companies on investment accounting policies, data analysis and operational efficiencies. This position will be primarily responsible for preparing and analyzing consolidated financial reports, footnote disclosures and MD&A related to the investment portfolio for earnings releases, SEC reports and other GAAP and STAT reporting. Additionally the incumbent will work with internal and external resources to ensure accurate key investment reporting and timely and accurate auditing, amongst other duties as required.

Minimum Qualifications, Skills and Experience:

- Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) in addition to an internationally recognized professional accounting designation (CA or CPA)
- At least 3 year's experience in public accounting with a preference towards auditing investment or insurance clients
- Prior experience managing a team of accounting professionals, inclusive of overseas management and managing external relationships
- At least ten years of post-qualification experience in investment accounting within the insurance industry with a strong knowledge of US GAAP, Statutory investment accounting, and SOX 404 rules
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team while delivering results
- Advanced proficiency and experience using Microsoft Excel, Access and PowerPoint. Experience working with investment accounting systems, such as CAMRA or PAM is preferred
- Professionally presented with strong customer-facing skills, and the ability to build and maintain working relationships with customers at all levels
