

SALES UTILITY PERSON

This job requires a versatile and flexible individual with a mature and responsible attitude who will fill in for staff members when they are sick or on vacation.

Applicants must have good English and Math skills and be able to work on their own with minimal supervision. Experience in sales and merchandising would be an asset.

Every day can be different in this position, so you must be able to cope with quick changes in your routine and be adaptable to different management styles and demands.

The positions one must cover include Presell Rep, Supermarket Merchandiser, Full Service Vending and Special Events. You will also have some regular warehouse and distribution duties and periodic weekend and holiday work will be required.

This job requires a considerable amount of lifting so it is important that you be in good physical condition.

Applicants must have a valid intermediate truck license --getting an HC truck license will be necessary. The company will provide a motorcycle for transportation to cover certain jobs so you must be able to ride a motorcycle.
