Chief Risk Officer and Appointed Actuary

Are you looking for an exciting opportunity within a growing team? Legal & General Reinsurance Company Limited is a new start up organisation, supported by Legal & General Group, one of the world's largest insurance and investment management groups in the UK. They currently invite applications for the dual role of Chief Risk Officer and Appointed Actuary.

Chief Risk Officer and Appointed Actuary

The Chief Risk Officer and Appointed Actuary is a critical role that will make a significant contribution to the international development of Legal & General's retirement solutions business. CRO duties will include continued development and implementation of an effective risk management framework and responsibility for compliance and related reporting. As Chair of L&G Re's Risk Committee, the individual will manage and provide oversight and advice on risk appetite and the company's risk framework to the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee of the Board. They will also monitor the impact of principal risks on the company's strategy, consider reports on key risk matters and provide advice/take appropriate action as required. In addition, as the Appointed Actuary for L&G Re, the successful candidate will have key accountability to provide opinions in accordance with the standards of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries and on related actuarial matters as specified by the BMA.

The successful candidate will be a Qualified Life Actuary, with experience of risk management within an insurance/reinsurance company and significant experience in actuarial financial reporting methodologies for life insurance business (including Solvency II). They will also have detailed understanding of pension benefit structures and their modelling, be familiar with CISSA and other BMA risk management rules, guidelines and reporting. Experience of Prophet is desirable. This role will be a regulated role, subject to BMA approval, and the successful candidate will be required to satisfy the 'fit and proper person' criteria.

This position is an exciting and unusual opportunity to be part of a growing start-up company within the secure environment of an international organisation. Whilst the role will be based in Bermuda, the successful individual may be required to travel to the UK occasionally.

An attractive remuneration package will be offered.

To apply please send your resume to bdajobs@expertise.bm or apply online at www.BermudaJobs.com by 9 February 2015.

All enquiries will be dealt with in strict confidence.
