

COLOUR & STYLE ANALYST

Part-time role for a style consultancy. The role will require working flexible and unsocial hours including, when required, Bermuda public holidays.

Requirements

- Certification from an internationally recognized fashion or styling institute
- Proven personal stylist experience and ability to self manage
- A demonstrable knowledge of international designers and brands
- Experience with personal shopping strategies (online and retail)
- Strategic planning experience – a part of this role will entail building and sustaining your own client base
- Experience giving colour tests with the ability to use colour drapes
- A profound understanding of colour theory, including how it impacts skin, hair and body types
- Experience penning a client style guide and colour analysis

Deadline April 16, 2015
