

Elevate Executive Selection Bermuda Ltd. is looking for a Recruitment Consultant to join their team in delivering exceptional recruitment support to existing and new clients both locally and overseas.

The successful applicant will manage a temporary contract portfolio and will conduct the placement of candidates in new and existing vacancies. Sourcing and screening new candidates in Bermuda and internationally to meet the needs of the business is a core function. This role requires the ability to develop new business as well as maintaining positive proactive relationships with existing clients. Precise attention to detail is required for immigration paperwork processing and all recruitment related administration.

Applicants must have a minimum of 5-8 years experience working in a recruiting environment with a staffing agency. Must have experience recruiting for the financial services industry. Experience in an off-shore jurisdiction would be an asset. Excellent communication skills are expected and must be open to working in a partly commissioned environment.

Suitable applicants are invited to submit a resume and two professional references to Elevate Executive Selection Bermuda Ltd., P.O. Box HM 3266, Hamilton HM PX no later than 14th August 2015.