

Shift Manager

The successful applicant must be multi-tasked and possess a high level of motivation and integrity, deal ably with people and have restaurant experience. The applicant must be willing to plan menus, able to review prices for purchasing, stock control, and be able to supervise and participate in any and all other duties as necessitated by Management to ensure the continuous smooth running of this high volume operation.

The applicant must also have a pleasant personality, be reliable, honest and trustworthy and also be flexible covering day or night and weekend position, committed to guest services, maximizes profitability by ensuring portion control, monitoring accuracy of charges, proficient restaurant human resource by recruiting, selecting, orienting, training, assigning, scheduling, coaching, counseling and disciplining employees, enforcing policies and procedure. Any experience in food preparation would be an asset. The successful applicant must be prepared to submit random drug testing. A proven record substantiated with references is a requirement along with a police certificate.

This position is available to individuals who are seriously in gainful employment. Bermudians or spouses of Bermudians preferred.

Closing date: August 21, 2015