

Efekta Rose Ltd.
(member of EF Education Group)

Requires a

REAL ESTATE ACCOUNTANT

Can you describe yourself as an energetic, ambitious, goal-oriented, well-organized individual who would like to gain more experience in the field of accounting? In this accounting position with EF, we are looking for a self-motivated, street-smart, recent graduate with a positive attitude to join a fast-paced and dynamic finance team.

The Role

Your responsibilities will include performing accounts payable functions, interacting with management, operations field staff, vendors and international colleagues from other offices around the world, preparing and posting general ledger entries, reconciling bank and general ledger accounts, performing quarterly closings and operational analysis, and managing fixed assets. Your strong communication skills, excellent attention to detail and an appreciation for international environments is necessary.

Requirements

- Minimum Bachelor Degree in Accounting/Business Administration/Finance is necessary
- Relevant experience in the field of accounting is considered an advantage
- Strong communication and analytical skills
- An energetic personality with a positive attitude
- Ability to constantly meet deadlines while ensuring high levels of accuracy
- Flexible and able to multi-task
- Proficient in Excel and Microsoft office
- Solution oriented and ability to independently solve problems

Why EF?

- We are international. EF is the world leader in international education with a global network of offices and schools.
- We are entrepreneurial. EF has grown into the largest international education company by hiring people who are street smart and “can get things done”. Our entrepreneurial spirit is at the core of what makes working at EF a ton of fun.
- We embrace change. Be prepared to join a flexible organization where no day is the same. We believe change is key to business success, personal development, and career progression.

Interested candidates should email their resume and covering letter to bermudafinance@ef.com by November 17, 2015

Efekta Rose Ltd., P.O. Box HM 1873, Hamilton HM HX 296-9080