

The Bermuda National Trust

is hiring a Museums Manager

WE ARE SEEKING AN EXPERIENCED AND SELF-MOTIVATED INDIVIDUAL

The successful candidate will bring a new and creative approach to exhibits and programmes at Trust properties

The Museums Manager's responsibilities include:

- All aspects of the Trust's Museum programming including historical and cultural exhibit design and interpretation, events and activities
- Developing, managing and promoting museum services including the Trust's extensive collection
- Collaborating with government and private agencies to develop meaningful partnerships
- Running educational and cultural tourism events
- Coordinating and managing the Trust's team of volunteer Museum Guides

The successful candidate must be a highly organized and team-oriented professional with excellent communication skills.

A degree level qualification in museums or social studies, most notably history or a related discipline, and 5 years post-qualification curatorial experience are required. Familiarity with interpretive techniques and a proven knowledge of Bermuda's history, culture and traditions are essential. Computer and administration skills using Microsoft Office products are necessary and experience with collection databases an asset.

Please send an application letter, resume and three professional references by December 31st, 2015 to Museums Manager, Bermuda National Trust, P.O. Box HM 61, Hamilton HM AX or email pauline@bnt.bm