

JOIN A WORLD-CLASS ORGANISATION

ACE Bermuda Insurance Ltd. ("ACE Bermuda") invites applications for the position of General Counsel. This position reports directly to the Division President of ACE Bermuda.

With operations in 54 countries, ACE Group is one of the world's largest multiline property and casualty insurers.

Duties and responsibilities include but are not limited to the following:

- Managing the Legal Department, including all legal and compliance activities within ACE Bermuda and its subsidiaries in Bermuda and Dublin
- Counselling senior executives, underwriters and claims professionals regarding corporate structure, corporate governance, U.S. federal tax law, state insurance-regulatory issues, personal jurisdiction, internal investigations, reinsurance treaties and structures, underwriting authorities, operational protocols and best practices, and contract construction and compliance
- Drafting and editing trial, appellate and arbitral briefs, submissions, affidavits, witness statements, motion papers, discovery instruments and other documents in connection with contentious matters
- Organising the preservation and collection of documents and information, and interviewing potential witnesses with knowledge, relevant to contentious matters
- Providing legal counsel to Claims Line Managers and Analysts relating to coverage, liability and damages
- Providing legal support to underwriters in all lines, including drafting and interpreting complex commercial insurance and reinsurance contracts and endorsements
- Interacting with brokers, underwriters, actuaries, clients, other insurers and senior executive management with confidence and professionalism
- Counselling and supporting the Human Resources Department whenever necessary in matters concerning employee relations

The successful applicant must possess:

- A four-year undergraduate degree from an accredited college or university
- A law degree from an accredited U.S. law school
- Admission to the bar in a U.S. jurisdiction, preferably New York
- A deep understanding of the U.S. tort system and insurance-coverage principles, particularly those applicable to Bermuda-form and D&O coverage, and commercial casualty insurance generally
- At least ten years of actual and substantive experience litigating and counselling clients with respect to major insurance-coverage and/or mass-tort matters in the United States, accompanied by a solid understanding of insurance-law principles and the U.S. tort system
- Superior analytical, oral and written communication, interpersonal and negotiating skills
- The ability to foster a culture of collaboration, and individual and organisational excellence, to prioritise work and to make decisions confidently in the presence of imperfect information
- Impeccable judgment, intellectual curiosity, strong attention to detail and the ability to exude confidence and professionalism while interacting with senior executives and sophisticated corporate clients and their brokers
- Good computer skills and the ability to perform internal communications and drafting without administrative assistance
- An exceptional work ethic.
