Special Education Teacher Aide

Our client, Mrs. Hilary Carr, requires a Special Education Teacher Aide to provide support to her children in the school environment and during afterschool activities. The incumbent will support the children in the classroom with learning/social/emotional challenges.

The successful applicant must have at least eight years experience working in special needs education; including working with children who have a specific learning disability with impairment in reading and written expression, children with oppositional defiance disorder, and children with high IQ scores coupled with learning disabilities. The applicant must have experience working with children from grade two to grade five, and will be expected to report to the parents regarding the children's behaviour and educational progress. The applicant will also need to work with all the teaching staff involved with the children's weekly lessons.

This position requires a 30 hour work week during the school term, plus additional hours if required. This role commences no later than January 5, 2016.

Interested? Please email jobs@expertise.bm.

All enquiries will be dealt with in strict confidence.

Closing Date: December 18, 2015
