

Land Surveyor

This is a senior position and the successful applicant must have proven skills and experience in all aspects of cadastral and topographical surveying which includes but not limited to having very thorough knowledge and understanding of all common law principles for the establishment of boundaries, a strong theoretical and calculation background to process and manipulate various types of projects of different sizes and complexity, must have minimum of 5 years experience in 2 and 3 dimensional CAD drawings, dealing with large earthworks, be able to calculate earthwork volumes, ability to supervise projects from estimation of cost through to final invoicing, which includes but not limited to, client consultation, file preparation, research, field survey, field to office processing for CAD purposes, apply common law theory to determine boundaries, draft a final plan presentation to a high quality standard, thorough knowledge of all Department of Planning applications for land development and subdivisions. Supervising and managing survey staff, liaise with all clients in a professional manner, possess strong communication skills, must have excellent Office software skills, the ability to multitask and work variable hours as projects demand.

Applications must be received no later than 22nd March 2016

Apply to:

Bermuda-Caribbean Engineering Consultants Limited
P.O. Box HM 1373 Hamilton HM FX Bermuda
Email: info@bcec.bm Tel: 2951700

*Applicants will be skill tested on the noted requirements.
All inquiries will be treated in strict confidence*