

Head of School

Saltus Grammar School, the largest co-educational independent school in Bermuda, is seeking a new Head of School. Founded in 1888 as a boys' grammar school, Saltus became fully co-educational in 1991. While highly regarded as one of Bermuda's premier schools, Saltus also enjoys an excellent reputation in the international community. The School offers a blend of the British National Curriculum and the North American curriculum. With over 900 students who range from Foundation Year to Graduate Years (12 & 13), Saltus Grammar School strives to inspire passion for learning and independent thinking through a commitment to academic excellence, personal integrity, and service to others.

The Head of School is accountable to the Board of Trustees, and has overall responsibility for the leadership of the School – academic, administrative, and financial. The new Head of School will be a strong and respected educational leader, with a Masters degree or equivalent, and with a track record of mentoring and developing faculty, encouraging students, and fostering a dynamic and healthy school community. The new Head will have a minimum of ten years of senior administrative experience (including exposure to finance, fundraising, and strategic planning), earned at the executive team level in an independent school. He or she will have demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence, and – most importantly -- will be a person of unassailable integrity and character.

Consideration of candidates will commence early April 2016, with the new Head to take office in the summer of 2017.

Candidates are requested to e-mail their letter of application, including resume/curriculum vitae to the Human Resources Department at:
