

SEEKING A VISUAL STORY TELLER.

ABOUT YOU

You're an amazing visual storyteller. You can take client briefs and create compelling designs that turn into great stories.

You have a keen eye for photography and you're also pretty darn good at detail oriented, day-to-day marketing work. Finally, you have the desire to become a design strategist who believes in more than simply slapping words on a page - even with the odd, not-so-exciting project.

ABOUT US

We need a maternity leave cover for graphic design support. Initially for two months with definite potential for full-time.

Do you want to be a part of a fast-paced, client-centric and strategically growing team? If so, The Brand Lion wants you!

NEXT STEPS

Send us a stellar résumé, fancy cover letter and link to your electronic portfolio, admin@thebrandlion.com & we promise to invite you over for a chat.
