Financial Reporting Actuary

Hannover Life Re Bermuda ("HLR Bermuda") has been operating in Bermuda since 2007 and is a core subsidiary of the very successful Hannover Re Group. HLR Bermuda writes life and health reinsurance business in partnership with our clients around the world. This business is managed by our small team of reinsurance professionals based in Bermuda. The company is rated A+ and AA- by A.M. Best and S&P respectively.

We now seek to appoint a qualified actuary as Financial Reporting Actuary, reporting to the Corporate Actuary/Risk Manager.

The Role:

This is a challenging role within the Corporate Actuarial team covering a wide range of internal and external reporting duties. Internal reporting duties include economic capital valuations for use in capital allocation and value creation metrics, and the reporting of risk metrics to Group Risk Management.

External reporting includes the preparation of the regulatory economic balance sheet and solvency metrics to be submitted to the Bermuda Monetary Authority, rating agencies capital models, and overseas regulatory reporting. Group Solvency II reporting is a key responsibility in this role.

The Financial Reporting Actuary will also be responsible for supporting the Corporate Actuary in carrying out capital impact assessments to support operational decision making including business development opportunities and strategic changes to the business.

The role requires regular engagement with HLR Bermuda's international group network, as well as close collaboration with the HLR Bermuda Finance team.

Requirements:

- Qualified actuary
- Minimum of five years of life and health reinsurance experience, ideally with experience of financial reinsurance
- A good understanding of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), Solvency II (balance sheet and variation analysis), and economic capital frameworks
- A strong ability to execute a financial reporting process in a methodical and controlled fashion within fixed deadlines
- Good written and verbal communication skills

HRL Bermuda is an equal opportunities employer.

Interested? Please email Jan Spindler, Senior Capital Actuary - jspindler@hlr.bm.

All enquires will be dealt with in strict confidence.

Closing date: June 1, 2016
