

Bermuda Centre for Creative Learning

a private school located in the centre of Hamilton is accepting applications for September 2016.

Our mission is to empower students aged 7-14 with diagnosed learning challenges who learn best in a nontraditional environment that facilitates students' individual learning styles.

Students have multiple opportunities to explore, create, and develop relationships with a small teacher to student ratio.

Interested parties should contact:
info@bermudacreativelearning.com