

KRYs Global is one of the premier offshore providers of corporate recovery, restructuring, litigation support, forensic accounting, AML/ATF and liquidation services. We have over 50 professionals working from eight offices in the Cayman Islands, British Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Guernsey, Cyprus, London, New York and Phoenix.

As an entrepreneurial firm, we thrive on exceeding our client’s expectations and achieving positive outcomes for our clients that others would have thought to be impossible. We expect our staff to be hard working, self-driven, constantly improve their knowledge, and keep up to date with the latest market developments.

We have exciting opportunities for intelligent and committed individuals who aim to grow and take on responsibilities in an agile business environment.

We are seeking applications for the below listed positions in our Bermuda office.

SENIOR ANALYST

The Senior Analyst will support management in providing analysis, research and other assistance in support of a broad range of services provided by the firm, including expert witness, valuation, forensic investigation, AML/ATF, restructuring, liquidation and asset recovery services.

The successful applicant is expected to be methodical, operate in a demanding environment and work with a high level of accuracy and attention to detail. The applicant will be highly organized, and have exceptional report writing, computer literacy, analytical and interpersonal skills. A team approach to projects and tasks is critical.

The candidate will have an accounting or insolvency background and will be qualified in one or both of these fields, from a recognized institution or professional body. Candidates with experience in regulatory compliance and reviewing AML/ATF would be preferred.

The successful applicant will have had at least three to five years’ relevant professional experience in a common law jurisdiction. Candidates should be available for project based secondments to our other offices or with our relationship partners and must be willing to work long hours during the week and on weekends if client deadlines need to be met.

The salary for this post will be commensurate with experience and qualifications, with comprehensive benefits package.

No solicitations from recruitment firms please. Written applications along with detailed resume including current remuneration and references should be submitted no later than Monday 11th July 2016 online at: www.KRYs-Global.com/careers/

MANAGER

The Manager will support senior management in managing projects and providing analysis, research and other assistance in support of a broad range of services provided by the firm, including expert witness, valuation, forensic investigation, AML/ATF, restructuring, liquidation and asset recovery services.

The successful applicant is expected to demonstrate managerial skills such as taking responsibility for work plans, budgeting and variance analysis. The Manager will be methodical, operate in a demanding environment and work with a high level of accuracy and attention to detail. The applicant will be highly organized, have exceptional report writing, computer literacy, analytical and interpersonal skills. A team approach to projects and tasks is critical.

The candidate will be a recognized licensed insolvency practitioner or possess professional accounting qualifications from a recognized institute, together with at least 7 years of relevant experience. Additional qualifications and experience in financial investigations, regulatory reviews, AML/ATF, or the corporate recovery fields would be advantageous.

Candidates should be available for project based secondments to our other offices or with our relationship partners and must be willing to work long hours during the week and on weekends if client deadlines need to be met.

The salary for this post will be commensurate with experience and qualifications, with comprehensive benefits package.

No solicitations from recruitment firms please. Written applications along with detailed resume including current remuneration and references should be submitted no later than Monday 11th July 2016 online at: www.KRYs-Global.com/careers/