

Housekeeper/Valet/Driver (Live In)

Robert R. Pires requires a live-in, non-smoking Housekeeper/Valet/Driver to assist in managing all aspect of the main household in addition to the occasional changeover of tenants at various rental properties across the island. The successful candidate will handle all aspects of house cleaning (general and heavy) including windows, outdoor entertaining spaces, laundry, ironing, grocery shopping, caring for pets and household plants together with some minor vegetarian cooking. It will be necessary for the applicant to handle minor maintenance jobs at the property together with hurricane proofing the house and environs when necessary. This will require heavy lifting.

Interested persons must be attentive, responsive and committed to providing exemplary service and support to all members and guests of the household. Applicants must have at least three years of continuous employment with a single employer and have experience working in a service oriented and demanding cleaning environment. Applicants should be prepared to work weekends when required and undergo a thorough background check.

Closing date for applications October 28th, 2016 (please no telephone enquiries). Apply in writing with qualifications with at least two references as to ability and experience to:
