

M.R. CONSTRUCTION LTD.

requires

FINISH CARPENTER/ FOREPERSON

The successful applicant must be a top grade finish carpenter and be experienced in supervisory management, able to work on own initiative and able to oversee workers on site and in carpentry shop, and train young staff. Previous experience in a similar position required. Must possess the ability to give clear instructions, and provide leadership. Must be highly motivated, professionally trained and certified.

Applicants must:

- Have a minimum of ten years experience in all aspects of finish carpentry including stain grade trim work, making and on-site installation of furniture, cabinets, doors, frames, windows, staircases and railing as the successful applicant will be required to carry out the work alone and/or as part of a team
- Have proven experience with all shop equipment
- Be able to build forms for concrete work
- Be able to read blueprints and layouts utilizing math skills
- Provide estimates for jobs
- Have a minimum of three years in a supervisory position
- Have a strong ability to organize assigned tasks
- Have great interpersonal & communication skills
- Plan, organize, schedule, supervise, and inspect the work of skilled and semi-skilled subordinates engaged in repair, alterations, and construction project work requiring the services of carpenters, dry wall installers and related personnel
- Complete and fulfill paperwork required for personal time sheets in a timely manner
- Have a willingness to work weekends and long hours if necessary
- Have own transportation; light van license a must

Interested applicants for the above-noted positions are asked to submit a cover letter and an up-to-date resume with 2 references by 28th February 2017 to:

Judith Stovell
M.R. Construction Ltd.
P.O. Box HM 2657
Hamilton HMKX

or

Email: mrconstruct@link.bm

Note: MR Construction promotes a drug-free environment - applicants may be subject to drug testing