Chubb Bermuda Insurance Ltd. invites applicants for the position of Deputy General Counsel, reporting directly to the General Counsel of Chubb Bermuda Insurance Ltd. (Chubb Bermuda).

With operations in 54 countries, Chubb is one of the world's largest multiline property and casualty insurers.

The duties for this position include, but are not limited to the following:

- Assisting the General Counsel and other in-house counsel as necessary
- Advising executive management with respect to strategies and tactics for the management of all aspects of Chubb Bermuda and its affiliates
- Providing support to underwriting teams in Bermuda and Europe with respect to legal and tort principles affecting risks located in the United States with contracts governed by law of various United States jurisdictions
- Drafting endorsements, developing new products, drafting policy wording and providing general legal counsel to excess casualty, financial lines and property underwriters
- Interacting with brokers, underwriters, clients and other insurers in Bermuda, Dublin and London, particularly with respect to integrated occurrence and Directors' and Officers' products
- Creating strategies and tactics for managing and coordinating outside counsel in connection with litigation in the United States, Bermuda and London, as well as other international jurisdictions
- Organising the preservation and collection of documents and information relevant to contentious matters
- Interviewing potential witnesses and other individuals with knowledge relevant to contentious matters, and preparing witnesses to testify
- Providing legal counsel to Claims Professionals relating to coverage analysis, underlying liability and damages, and contentious coverage disputes
- Assisting General Counsel in management of corporate holdings, including intellectual property as well as executing tasks in relation to corporate transactions and governance matters for Chubb's Bermuda-based companies
- Managing compliance personnel for Bermuda operations
- Assisting in the development and execution of compliance matters applicable to Bermuda and European entities

The successful applicant will possess:

- A United States law degree from an accredited law school and admission to the bar, preferably including New York
- Actual and substantive litigation experience in the United States on major matters relating to insurance coverage and torts, accompanied by a solid understanding of insurance-law principles and experience with the United States tort system
- At least 5 years of actual experience counselling an international insurer with an understanding of legal, compliance and regulatory principles necessary to counsel underwriting, claims and management personnel
- Excellent analytical, writing, interpersonal and organisational skills
- The capacity to work on one's own initiative and yet thrive in a team-based environment
- Exceptional legal instincts, a strong work ethic, impeccable judgment, intellectual curiosity, and the ability to prioritise work and make tactical decisions confidently in the presence of imperfect information
- Good computer skills and the ability to perform internal communications and drafting without administrative assistance
