Clinical Assessor

Our Client is currently seeking a part-time Clinical Assessor to join their team. The role is open to Bermudians, spouses of Bermudians or PRC holders only who must be prepared to commit to a minimum of 10 to 15 hours a week.

Our Client provides seniors with rental accommodation. The purpose of the position will be to provide ongoing monitoring support of current tenants to ensure that they are able to live independently.

The successful applicant will be responsible for:

- Undertaking and/or coordinating comprehensive assessments of tenants' medical needs relating to both their psychological and physical condition
- Identifying potential risks to ensure that tenants are able to live independently and to make recommendations and/or referrals to the appropriate agencies and, where possible and practical, to work with the tenants and their families to action any recommendations and/or referrals
- Assisting in developing any necessary policies and procedures that should govern to achieve the above two objectives

Minimum Qualifications, Skills & Experience:

- A minimum of 5 years' experience in clinical assessments
- Must have a professional degree or recognized equivalent qualification as a registered health practitioner, social worker, registered nurse or related discipline
- Have the clinical knowledge, judgment and expertise to undertake comprehensive clinical assessments to ascertain tenants' abilities to live independently
- Knowledge and understanding of health and/or mental health changes and the impact on the elderly
- Excellent interpersonal skills and ability to work with tenants and their families
- Must have own transportation

To apply please send your résumé to bdajobs@expertise.bm or apply online at www.BermudaJOBS.com.

All enquiries will be dealt with in strict confidence.
