

Global Standards Programme In-Country Execution Lead (18 months)

HSBC Operations, Services and Technology

Closing date: TBC

HSBC Bermuda is seeking a highly skilled professional to join the senior management team of the HSBC Operations, Services and Technology division. This role, reporting to the Chief Operating Officer, will operate in a country-wide capacity and play a significant and critical part in the success of both the overall HSBC-wide Global Standards and each line of business' objectives and outcomes within the programme.

Major responsibilities

- Represent the country's interests and ensure delivery to Global Standards requirements according to the Global Standards Steering Committee's (GSSC) agreed priorities
- Ensure programme delivery, line of business and work stream engagement across country. Ensure the country's solutions meet Financial Crime Compliance (FCC) requirements
- Take execution decisions relating to the country's Global Standards solutions and escalation of cross lines of business issues, risks and dependencies, as appropriate
- Actively manage the Global Standards In-country Execution Committee (ICEC) governance and control framework at country level
- Provide central management and oversight of the Operational Effectiveness (OE) programme across the bank; including the effectiveness ownership of governance and control framework

Minimum qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience with professional qualifications in project and/or programme management e.g. Project Management Professional (PMP)
- Proven capability as a programme management office leader in delivering large complex programmes with an excellent track record in programme delivery, typically in both execution and coordination roles
- Knowledge and exposure of HSBC's Global Standards or Operational Effectiveness programme
- Mobilisation and problem solving experience
- Highly experienced in dealing with senior and executive sponsors and rationalising cross line of business priorities
