Project Consultant

We are seeking applications from insurance and reinsurance professionals who wish to work periodically on temporary assignments.

The nature of projects vary and range in length from a few weeks to a few months. Most assignments require full time hours to be performed at client sites. Compensation for this position is based on chargeable hours. Successful applicants will possess a university degree, a proven track record of performance and at least 12 months of experience in reinsurance underwriting, modeling, claims, operations or any combination thereof.

Candidates with relevant professional qualifications are preferred.

If you feel this is an ideal position for you then send your CV to Savannah Tribley at savannah@expertise.bm and let us know what makes you an ideal candidate. Applications will be dealt with in strict confidence.

Closing Date: August 11, 2017
