

Counsel/Senior Corporate Attorney

CHW has a challenging opportunity for a counsel/senior corporate attorney to form part of a busy corporate department. We seek to attract talented individuals who have demonstrated an ability to excel in a dynamic, team-based environment.

General duties of the position include:

- Performing the lead advisory role on a wide range of corporate matters;
- Advising clients, attendance at meetings (in Bermuda and elsewhere) and drafting an extensive range of corporate documents;
- Providing supervision, training, and support to junior attorneys and pupils through seminars and direct mentoring;
- Providing technical advice and oversight to corporate administrators;
- Developing precedent documentation and knowledge management matters; and
- Assisting with marketing and business development of CHW's corporate practice and the firm generally.

The successful candidate will possess the following qualifications and skills:

- A minimum of 8 years' post qualification experience working as a senior attorney in a corporate private practice legal environment; more experience is preferable;
- Proven previous experience advising on a wide range of corporate finance matters, including mergers and acquisitions, initial public offerings, schemes of arrangement, public securities and global capital markets, debt and equity transactions, banking and finance, partnerships, insurance & reinsurance and investment funds;
- Knowledge to an advanced level of all applicable Bermuda legislation in connection with the above experience;
- Outstanding interpersonal skills with the ability to provide supervision and work as a team member with a supportive and diplomatic approach;
- Excellent written and oral communications with strong marketing and business development skills;
- Good technical and project management skills with the ability to work to strict deadlines;
- Excellent computer skills in Microsoft Word and Excel.

CHW offers a competitive compensation and benefits package.
