

We're writing the future of risk.

Join us, and we will ask you to Be smart, Be sensible, Be open and, above all else, Be more—strive harder, reach further, never give up. These First Principles are the intellectual and moral compass of everyone at Hamilton. They shape the way we build our team, the way we work and the way we will prosper.

We're looking for an Assistant Vice President, Casualty Underwriter

This professional will be responsible for underwriting a diverse book of predominantly large, national/Fortune 1000 accounts. He or she will be a member of a highly collaborative and dynamic team.

What you will help us do

- Help build a portfolio of business that is designed to perform well throughout market cycles
- Conduct extensive reviews and analysis of submissions and the insureds' operations, products and other coverage-relevant exposures
- Develop and maintain strong relationships with clients and brokers to ensure continuous flow of desirable business while also cultivating new business opportunities
- Work in close collaboration with the Actuarial, Legal, Risk & Analytics and other functional areas, as needed, to analyse and structure coverage
- Travel as required (within our operating parameters) to meet with clients and brokers, and to attend client reviews and industry conferences
- Chair or host (as appropriate) group and/or individual underwriting meetings with clients, prospects and brokers
- Assist with product research and development as the opportunities arise
- Review and drafting of policy forms and endorsements
- Assist with ad hoc projects, presentations and research projects

What you require for the job

- A university degree, with preference given to an MBA or relevant advanced degree
- A minimum of 8 years of experience in progressively senior underwriting roles
- CPCU, ARe or other industry designations (or progress towards same) desired
- A demonstrable and thorough understanding of the subject business
- Strong technical skills and experience in underwriting a wide range of casualty lines, including auto liability, general casualty and excess casualty
- Solid industry relationships with reinsurance brokers
- A strong grasp of policy forms and endorsements and their impact on a risk
- Ability to work beyond typical business hours as volume and ad hoc work require
- Strong interpersonal skills, with the ability to engage and gain the trust of clients, brokers and colleagues
- Highly collaborative, with ability to work both independently and as part of a team
- Willingness to assist in all aspects of the underwriting process including data input, file construction and maintenance, quote and binder production, and policy issuance
- A strong work ethic with superior organisational skills and the ability to prioritise and multi-task

Exceptional interpersonal and managerial capabilities, including the ability to build strong relationships and influence, will be a key attribute for success.
