The Parliamentary Joint Select Committee

Inquiring Into The Events of December 2nd 2016 Incident At The House of Assembly

Introduction

On 1 December 2017 the House of Assembly approved a Motion to investigate the events leading to the events of 2 December, 2016. The Speaker of the House of Assembly thereafter appointed a Parliamentary Joint Select Committee to investigate the matter.

Terms of Reference

The Terms of Reference require the Committee Parliamentary Joint Select Committee to look into the events of 2 December, 2016 generally, including the decision-making and any directives of the Executive and then Speaker of the House of Assembly given to the Bermuda Police Service that led up to and precipitated the events on that day. These events include the deployment of Police in riot gear and the use by some Police of incapacitant pepper spray on the crowd of citizens assembled in protest.

Authority

The Parliamentary Joint Select Committee was established by Resolution of the House of Assembly at its Session on 1 December 2017, under provisions of the Parliament Act 1957 (The Act) and Standing Orders of the House of Assembly (SO 38 I-3).

Pursuant to the Part IV of the Parliament Act 1957, the Parliamentary Joint Select Committee was appointed to:

- (1) inquire into the events as aforesaid as thoroughly as may be ;
- (2) to bring closure to these events by making all necessary findings, recommendations and, where required, to recommend any proper sanctions; and
- (3) to submit its report to the House of Assembly within three to six months.

In relation to every issue relevant to these events, the Parliamentary Joint Select Committee shall-

- (1) identify the key or relevant decision-makers of the precipitating actions which led to the main events under inquiry;
- (2) send for all persons, papers and records that are relevant to the Committee's mandate to thoroughly inquire into the events;
- (3) examine all persons who are or were accountable for decisions, deployments, and acts or omissions on 2 December, 2016 whether as Premier, Ministers, Public Officers, Civil Servants or Constitutional Office Holders.

The Parliamentary Joint Select Committee Members

The Chairman of the Parliamentary Joint Select Committee is Mr. H. K. E. (Kim) Swan JP M.P.

The other members of the Committee are:

- Senator the Hon. Joan Dillas-Wright JP, President of the Senate;
- Mr. Neville Tyrrell JP, M.P.;
- The Hon. Michael Scott JP, M.P.
