- Perform general marketing, business development, and attend client meetings
- Evaluate opportunities and prioritize submissions
- Carry out risk analysis, policy review and pricing
- Evaluate financial objectives of clients
- Negotiate and maintain contracts
- Quote and authorize accounts
- Support and lead ad hoc projects as required

What you require for the job

- A university degree
- An industry professional designation preferred (ARe, ARM, CPCU, or ACII)
- A minimum of ten years' experience in progressively senior underwriting roles
- Proven ability to work closely with brokers to negotiate terms and conditions
- Familiarity with vendor models, including RMS and AIR
- Strong computer skills including Excel
- Excellent interpersonal and managerial capabilities, including the ability to build strong relationships and influence, will be a key attribute for success
- Ability to work independently within a small team, with an emphasis on accuracy and timeliness
- Ability to partner and work across functional areas to achieve organizational goals
- Willingness to travel and work extended hours when required
